ORGANISATIONAL INFORMATION Please Read

Please ensure you familiarise yourself with the Rules of the Festival for this section. These can be found on the website via: <https://www.spiritofthearts.com.au/performing-arts-festival/>

- All participants must be at the venue, at least 10 minutes prior to their scheduled session time and endeavour to remain until the end of that session.
- Due to any seating restrictions which may be in place and for health & safety practices, please wait outside until the session before has completed.
- Backing tracks, accompanist or performing unaccompanied are allowed. Students must bring their own backing. For reliability on reproduction of sound – all students must bring their own mobile device and speaker – ready to play. (Preferably Bluetooth / Wireless) No CDs.
- Participants will announce their name, school, item, and introduce their accompanist (if provided) immediately prior to their performance.
- Participants must observe the given time limit for their section.

- Participants may not speak to the adjudicator. Each participant will also be presented with a written adjudication report.
- All Festival participants are reminded that they are bound by the laws of copyright. Performers must provide the adjudicator with a photocopy of the original music. Performers should retain the original music for practice purposes and for use on the day of performances. The adjudication copy will be destroyed after the performance.
- If music is not received by the published due date, or the item is changed after the closing date of the online entry, the performance will not be eligible for an Award.

Note: It is the responsibility of all schools to have a First Aid Kit or adequate provisions at every performance. Each school is responsible for their own students.

EQUIPMENT PROVIDED BY THE VENUE

- Music Stands

PASSING ON INFORMATION

It is expected of the PAF Coordinator at your school that this information is passed on to the teachers, tutors, and parents concerned. Advertising the festival in your newsletter is a great way to inform parents and especially students, who are tutored outside of the school.

Please advertise this event within your school community.

TESTING & TAGGING

Please ensure that all testing and tagging of any electrical cables and/or equipment is visible and has been passed by a qualified electrician. If any faults occur within a venue as a result of your equipment not being tagged or passed, the cost of the call-out fee for an electrician to rectify the fault will be charged to your school. Some venues may not allow a performance without the correct tagging.

TICKETING

Ticketing for this event will be available online via Trybooking on the Spirit of the Arts website: www.spiritofthearts.com.au. Seating for performers have been allocated – performers do not need tickets. Audience members will not be permitted into the venue without your scanned barcode and/or ticket.

RESPECT OF VENUE

It is important that there are enough teachers travelling with and supervising students. There must be a teacher supervising the students (students are not to be left on their own) and students must remember to respect the property and adhere to any staff instructions at venues.
